

Welcome to Lily's Garden

Lily is a joyful girl, always ready for a ride in the nature. With her, it's all about the "green attitude".

The nature is where she finds her inspiration, and where she feels at home. Even if she loves her city life, she needs to feel connected to the earth. This is why she has grown a botanic garden in her backyard, where she picks her own herbs and veggies.

During the weekends, she loves inviting her friends to discover her new homemade cocktails. When she's not in the backyard or in the kitchen making fresh and delicious drinks, she is at a music festival enjoying the latest pop hits and partying with her friends.

Come and discover her green and fun universe!
